Online Skylight Gallery Exhibition

Feature Artist: Arwynn Davey - Wishes, Wings and Whimsical Things

For the month of March, Aurora's Online Skylight Gallery is featuring works by artist Arwynn Davey. "Wishes, Wings and Whimsical Things" is a collection of joyful, detailed paintings of simple motifs such as dandelion wishes, sweet birds and wildlife. These artworks were inspired by the artist's son and each piece strives to capture the feelings of optimism, hope, whimsy and pure joy of childhood. This uplifting collection is painted on birch wood panels with rich, layered colours and fine details. The pieces are finished with a high gloss resin to saturate the colours. Arwynn Davey is an established graphic designer pursuing her other true love – painting. Her artistic passion focuses on nature and moments of beauty, tranquility and peace, reacting to the strong need for these moments in life. In her work a moment of absolute peace and calm is captured, whether it is fluff caught in the wind or a perfect sunrise.

All work is for sale, please contact Andrea Araujo at aaaraujo@aurora.ca if you are interested in purchasing a piece. View this online gallery at aurora.ca/skylightgallery.

Learn more about LDD

Lymantria dispar dispar (LDD) is a species of moth. In the winter their egg masses can be easily seen on tree trunks. If not removed the eggs will hatch in the spring and larvae will ascend the trees to feed on the foliage. To help stop the spread, egg masses can be scraped off with a dull knife and dropped into a bucket filled with soapy water for up to two days. Always wear gloves when removing the egg masses or caterpillars as they may cause skin irritation or a rash.

Learn how to spot and protect your trees from LDD at aurora.ca/ldd.

3 Steps To remove egg masses

- 1 Place a bucket under the affected tree
- 2 Use a scraper tool to remove the egg masses from the tree
- 3 Place egg masses in a bucket of soapy water for 2 days
