

Town of Aurora's Culture Rally

Have you ever participated in a Car Rally? Now's your chance to try a Culture Rally! Gather the family and start exploring Aurora! You have between now and October 22 to email in your total score to swhite@aurora.ca. The top three scorers will be asked to submit their tally sheet and photos.

Clues:

100pts  Listening to fairy tales and nursery rhymes before bed were some of our favourite childhood memories! This building is home to countless ones to read and enjoy. Go to this location and take a photo of the Drop Box attached to the wall by the entrance.

100pts  Splish Splash isn't just for the bath. Go to this place where splashes of fun are created! Take a photo of a member of your team posing with a funny face.

100pts  Some may say spooky things happen here at night, but visit during the day and nothing should give you a fright! This place is quite quiet, and the people are mainly bones. If you look around, you will only see tombstones. When was this place established?

Answer:

100pts  If Shakespeare were still alive, it would be in this coffee shop where his writing would thrive. What is the name of the newest coffee shop on Yonge Street? Coffee is celebrated in a variety of cultures around the world and ironically was discovered by goats!!

Clues:

150pts  Find a Canada Day flag unfurled on a pole and take a proud photo with it.

150pts  Take pictures of cars that capture each colour of the rainbow. (6 cars/pictures in total - red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple)

175pts  Make a team pyramid with the members in your car on a piece of the grass somewhere and take a photo. You must have everyone in your group visible in the photo. The challenge will be finding a place to put the camera or phone!

100pts  Take a photo of someone from your car hanging upside down - be creative!

100pts  Overlooking Town Park and built in 1892, this old school is now brand new. A bit of construction it's been through to make it a set of lofts with a view. What colour is the brick on the front of the building?

Answer:

Clues:

 100pts The Town of Aurora Cenotaph is a memorial tower that was built in 1925 to recognize local men who died during The Great War. The "Altar of Sacrifice" was added in 1960 to honour the heroes from the Second World War. What's the third item that you can find at the War Memorial Peace Park?

Answer:

 200pts Back in the day, if you wanted to say hey - it's to this building you'd bring your mail, where they'd send it out as fast as a snail. Snap a photo of this historic building on Yonge Street that's been around since 1915!

 200pts You may have heard of Hillary House and been to the big Ball bash, but did you know they also have something called a geocache? Take a walk around the Verandah and you might just find it! Make sure to sign the log, take a brochure, and snap a photo.

 200pts All Aboard! If you weren't in your car, how would you get around? When it's ready to depart, it makes a certain sound. This building opened on May 16th 1853, what are the two main colours it is painted in?

Answer:

 200pts Pine Tree Potters Guild has resided in Aurora since its inception in 1979. Find their display window, how many pieces of pottery are there and which one is your favorite?

Answer:

 200pts New this year, there are a variety of Culture Days banners up on display throughout the Town. Take a selfie with the one that is your favourite.

 200pts This young athlete brought home 'The Cup' last year. Take a photo of his banner as you enter Aurora.

Clues:

 200pts Do you have even a fraction of a sweet tooth? This fantastic factory has fascinated chocolate fanatics forever. Take a photo of the storefront.

 200pts Did you know there is a beautiful wood-carving in Lambert Willson Park of the Goddess, Aurora. Take your photo with this celestial carving.

 200pts Where can you buy fresh farm food every Saturday in Aurora? Go to this location and take a photo of the organization's logo.

 200pts This building was originally designed by Walter Moberly in 1874 as a drill shed for the 12th Battalion of the Infantry of York Rangers. Now, the building has been renovated for a new purpose. Take a photo of the floor-to-ceiling window, looking through to where they work and learn.

 200pts Did you know that Canada's Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson was born in Aurora? His childhood home is on Catherine Avenue. Take a selfie including the street sign.

 300pts Cultural celebrations often take place during special events. During its final years, the Aurora Horse Show was relocated to this Park, which is now the home of Aurora's Ribfest. Take a photo of the Park sign.

 300pts What is the last name of the person who sold Town Park to the Town? Take your photo by the street name which bears his name.

 300pts Within Sheppard's Bush there is an old family home what is now the headquarters of this environmental organization.

Answer: