RECIPE FOR A CS4L COMMUNITY

1. Become a Champion
Canada's community champions come from health, education, recreation, sport and volunteer sectors and can be individuals or organizations.

2. Spread the Word
Educate and inspire new champions to jump on board. Use a local champion to present or select a community workshop from Canadian Sport for Life.

3. Make a Plan
MAP our ASSETS What you see already doing in your community around addressing physical literacy and physical activity?
SET GOALS Where would you like to be in one, five, ten years from now?
Becoming a CS4L Community Guide has a checklist you can follow here.

4. Keep Your Eye on the Prize
Remember, this is hard work, it can be challenging to bring together non-traditional partners, but it is worth it in the end!
