Memorandum

Date: May 3, 2017
To: Canada 150 Ad Hoc Committee
From: Shelley Ware, Recreation Supervisor, Special Events
Re: Canada 150's Celebratory Tattoo Update

Recommendation

- 1. That the memorandum regarding Canada 150's Celebratory Tattoo Update be received for information.

Background

This memorandum serves as an update to the Canada 150 Ad Hoc Committee on the current status of the Celebratory Tattoo. As a result of not being able to book a brass band, the Aurora Celebratory Tattoo, that was scheduled for Saturday, May 20, 2017, has been cancelled.

The Tattoo was one of the signature special events planned for this year by this Committee and was an additional event to other Canada 150 events and event enhancements planned within the existing 2017 Town of Aurora Special Events Calendar.

When funding was approved by Council, the timing was tight for making the Tattoo possible as staff had yet to contact the essential marching pipes and drum bands for the Tattoo which includes a brass band.

To date, all of the marching pipe and drum bands and key instrumental elements for creating a memorable Tattoo had been secured by staff with the exception of a brass band and without a competent brass band, a Tattoo is not possible.

Canada 150 Tattoo Update

Despite the efforts of staff, Ken White from the Royal Canadian Legion and Col. Fred Tilston VC Branch 385, no brass band in the province was available. Ken White's resilience and dedication in trying to make the Tattoo a success is recognized.

Memorandum

Date: May 3, 2017
To: Canada 150 Ad Hoc Committee
From: Laura Sheardown, Cash Flow & Investment Co-ordinator/Financial Analyst
Re: Financial Update

Recommendation

- 1. That the memorandum regarding Financial Update be received; and
- 2. That the Canada 150 Ad Hoc Committee provide direction.

Background

The Canada 150 Ad Hoc Committee had received funding from Council, of which $40,000 was earmarked for the development and presentation of a Celebratory Tattoo. As staff have now confirmed, the Tattoo has been cancelled, and the funds are available for reconsideration by the Committee.

Staff has developed the following list of items for consideration. Once direction has been provided, staff will report back to Council for approval of the change in purpose for the approved funding.

Item/Event	Description	Funding Requested
Canada 150 Mural Mosaic Project Various events and locations	Creation of an 8' x 12' mural designed by Canadian artist Lewis Lavoile. Estimated costs include not only the external event/mural costs, but also internal event costs and installation after the mural has been completed.	$ 18,000
