Treaties Recognition Week

November 2 to 8

Ontario has observed Treaties Recognition Week since 2016 to encourage learning about treaty rights and relationships. This year, it takes place from November 2 to 8.

Treaties are legally binding agreements between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples. Aurora is located within Treaty # 13, signed in 1805, and the Williams Treaties, signed in 1923.

We are all treaty people, and understanding these agreements is an important step toward reconciliation.
