Now Therefore Be It Hereby Resolved That staff be directed to add the appropriate sunset clauses to all future site-specific zoning by-law amendments passed by Council to stipulate the following: i. If a building permit has not been issued under the Building Code for any building or structure so authorized within a specified time frame from enactment of the Zoning By-law Amendment that is appropriate for the development, then the by-law will automatically repeal and if so repealed, the zoning of the property will revert to the original zoning; and ii. In addition, staff be directed to include existing Official Plan Servicing Allocation "Use it or Redistribute It" policies in all future residential draft plan of subdivision and site plan application approvals that will stipulate the applicant shall proceed to register the appropriate development agreement within a given time frame or receive an extension from Council and obtain a building permit within a specified time frame for said project. If the applicant does not satisfy the time frame requirements of the agreement or receive an extension from Council, the development approvals and servicing allocation may be revoked.
